Androgenic Alopecia

A common form of hair loss characterized by gradual thinning of the hair and balding at the crown.

Telogen Effluvium

Temporary hair loss caused by excessive shedding of hair and thinning on the scalp.

Central Centrifugal Cicatricial Alopecia

A type of scarring hair loss in women, primarily affecting the central scalp.

Alopecia Areata

An autoimmune condition that causes patchy hair loss on the scalp and other areas of the body.

Tinea Capitis:

A fungal infection of the scalp causing scaly, inflamed patches and hair loss.

Traction Alopecia:

Hair loss caused by prolonged and repeated tension from tight hairstyles.

Common hair loss (alopecia) treatments available in pharmacies, including minoxidil, ampoules, lotions, and serums for nourishing hair follicles and promoting hair growth.

- Minoxidil 5% Topical Solution
- Minoxidil Foam 5% (Lotion ع, lotions, and serums
- Hair lotions, ت serums بيتان لوشن وسيرمات فيجلين and serums for nourishing hair follicles and promoting hair growth.